

Ai! Ai! Woe and misery! This is to certify that on the 3rd February, in the year 2007, that brave Investigator Lance Pederson under the guidance and tutelage of Cole Leadon, as witnessed by the all seeing eye of the Keeper and their fellow intrepid explorers, did fall to the darkness of the crawling chaos from beyond the stars, in the tragedy here after referred to as Over The Rainbow, this having taken place at the gathering of Conception 2007.

The Shadow Warriors, under whose control and watchful gaze these events took place do thank Cole Leadon for their brave (though ultimately futile) efforts to remain alive, while cheerfully abandoning their sanity in the bedevilment and chaotic interpretation of story arcs and general devotion to thwarting any and all plans of the Call of Cthulhu Keeper in bringing about the end of the world as we know it.

Lance Pederson need fear no further torment, counting themselves among the growing number of Investigators that worship at the altar of Call of Cthulhu Convention games and fall in the line of duty.

With the sincerest of thanks, and deepest of sympathies,

For and on behalf of the Shadow Warriors
Role Playing Club.
