

Star Wars Psychology I

by Robbo the Stormtrooper

ROBBO's Rules of Soldiering:

1. Officers are out to kill you. Kill them first.
2. Never leave anyone behind...except for officers. See rule 1.
3. Never volunteer for anything, except where it relates to rule 1 or 2.
4. There is no problem that cannot be resolved through the generous application of thermal detonators. See rules 1 and 2.
5. Don't be afraid to get close and personal. As an old corporal I knew used to say, "They don't like it up'em".

Coming Soon Robbo will start his exclusive series of articles on life as a Stormtrooper, starting with favourite Stormtrooper recipes such as Ewok Marsala and Spit Roast Ewok with Apple Sauce.....mmm mouthwatering stuff. So fire-up that Turbolaser and let's get cooking!
